Reflection on the Fourth Sunday of Easter

The fourth Sunday of Easter is also called Good Shepherd Sunday. In each of the three lectionary cycles, our Gospel is taken from the 10th chapter of the Gospel of John. In Cycle B, we hear the middle verses of this chapter. Unless we consider this chapter in the greater context of John's Gospel, we will miss the radical nature of the statement Jesus makes when he declares himself to be the Good Shepherd.

The concern of a good shepherd for his sheep is part of the shepherd's job. Jesus says, however, that the actions of the good shepherd are based upon the relationship that develops between the shepherd and the sheep. This is at the heart of the difference between the good shepherd and the hired shepherd. The good shepherd knows the sheep and therefore acts out of love. For the Good Shepherd, this is never simply part of a job; this love-in-action is integral to his identity.

Assisted Listening Devices:

As part of our continued effort to make sure everyone has a good listening experience during Mass we wanted to make you aware that we now have several new Assisted Listening Devices.

They are very easy to use.

You basically put the earpiece on your ear, turn the little device on, and adjust the volume to your liking. Several parishioners have also found that their personal earbuds plug into the devices and work really well.

They are available at each Mass by simply asking one of our Ministers of Hospitality to get one for you.

We have had several parishioners test these, including some of our seniors. They tell us that the earpieces provide excellent enhanced sound.

Please let us know if you would like to try one!

4th Sunday of EASTER

SAINTS FUN FACTS

by John Sheppard

St. Mark is the author of the second Gospel and he and his mother were highly thought of in the early church. St. Mark accompanied St. Peter and St. Barnabas on their journey to Cyprus and later was in Rome with St. Paul and St. Peter.

Tradition tells us that St. Mark was requested by the Romans to set down the teachings of St. Peter, which is the record of the life of Jesus seen thru Peter's eyes. He is also the patron of notaries.

What is sacred music, and why is it important?

The Second Vatican Council stated: “The musical tradition of the universal Church is a treasure of inestimable value, greater even than that of any other art. The main reason for this pre-eminence is that, as sacred song united to the words, it forms a necessary or integral part of the solemn liturgy.” (Sacrosanctum Concilium, §112) Pope Pius XII

Sacred music is the greatest of the arts associated with the Liturgy because it not only adorns the Mass, but is an integral part of it. This treasure of sacred music is a treasure meant to be shared. Catholics deserve to hear and worship with sacred music drawn from this treasury. What we sing at St. Luke's is a portion, albeit a small one, of this great body of beautiful sacred music that has been handed down to us.

Sacred music means more than singing at Mass, it most properly means singing the Mass. One way we try to do this at St. Luke's is to sing the Entrance and Communion Antiphons, which are the texts prescribed by the Church for specific liturgies. The Church has handed down Gregorian Chant settings of these antiphons. We sing these Latin chant settings occasionally, but more often we sing modern English chant versions.

While the rubrics allow for other music selections (such as hymns) at these times, the first preference is given to these Antiphons. The texts are often related directly to the readings of the day, or more indirectly when they draw out other meanings and connections within Scripture. Consider taking some time to meditate on the Antiphons along with meditating on the readings of the day.

Ignited by Truth Catholic Conference

Get ready for the annual Ignited By Truth Catholic Conference! Join us on Friday, April 26, and Saturday, April 27, at NC State's Reynolds Coliseum for an unforgettable experience.

Friday night praise and worship for ALL ages (in partnership with Franciscan University at Steubenville) is led by Chika Anyanwu, Dana Catherine, and Fr. Ian Van Heusen.

Last year, over 800 Catholics filled the coliseum. In this year of Eucharistic revival, we hope to double that number! Saturday brings Mass with Bishop Luis Rafael Zarama, Confession, Adoration, Church relics, and a focus on Eucharistic miracles. Our speakers include Fr. Donald Calloway on St. Joseph and the Rosary, Msgr. Stephen Rossetti on spiritual renewal, and Fr. Lawrence Carney on the Holy Face devotion. Deacon Ralph Poyo will MC and share insights on the power of Jesus and forming a personal relationship with Him!

Tickets are $25 for both days. Students above 10 are free and include pizza. Don't miss the 21st Ignited By Truth conference! Visit ignitedbytruth.org for more information.

Join us on April 19-20 and 26-27 at 7pm as a group of rad rockers pull together to save rock and roll from getting razed to the ground.
