Reflection on the Sixth Sunday of Easter

Today's Gospel follows immediately after the Gospel proclaimed last week, in which Jesus taught that he was the vine and that his disciples were the branches. In the example of the vine and the branches, we learned that our union with Jesus will lead to fruitful service. Today's reading extends this teaching to describe the kind of service that Christians are called upon to offer to others.

When John wrote this Gospel, his community was influenced by a set of religious beliefs called Gnosticism. It appears that one of John's intentions was to distinguish Christian belief from the beliefs held by the Gnostics. Evidence of this can be found in today's Gospel.

One of the tenets of Gnostic teaching was the importance of knowledge, or gnosis, as the determining aspect of faith. We read today's Gospel as a response to this teaching. In John's Gospel, we hear Jesus affirm that he is known by the Father and that his disciples will know the Father by knowing Jesus. In this passage, however, Jesus reminds his disciples that this knowledge is to be expressed in love. Those who know Jesus well—and Jesus says that his disciples do know him—will love one another. Knowledge leads to love, which leads to action. John reminds his community that Jesus taught that love is the sign of a true disciple and, thus, a true Christian. Even more, a true disciple shows a particular kind of love, sacrificial love.

What are the Qualities of True Sacred Music?

Last week, we covered the three qualities of true sacred music as described by Pope St. Pius X in his encyclical on sacred music, Tra Le Sollicitudini (1903). These were sanctity, goodness of forms, and universality. Of the first quality Pius X says this:

"It must be holy, and must, therefore, exclude all profanity not only in itself, but in the manner in which it is presented by those who execute it."

Sanctity is another word for holiness, which is related to the term "sacred." Pius X's use of the term "profanity" draws on the old distinction between the sacred and profane. The sacred is that which is set aside for God, and the profane is that which is given for lower uses. In this context, the profane is not necessarily sinful, but simply indicates that which is not suitable for the worship of God.

To make this idea more concrete, we can look at three ways in which the music needs to be holy: text, musical composition, and musical performance (external and internal). The text, which is usually from Scripture, must be about holy things and suited to that moment of the Mass. The music must be composed in accord with the meaning of the text and its place in the Mass. The performance by the musician(s) must be suited to the meaning of that text, its composition, and the moment in the Mass. This all must be performed with the proper intention to worship God and to edify and sanctify the faithful who hear it.

Assisted Listening Devices:

As part of our continued effort to make sure everyone has a good listening experience during Mass we wanted to make you aware that we now have several new Assisted Listening Devices.

They are very easy to use.

You basically put the earpiece on your ear, turn the little device on, and adjust the volume to your liking. Several parishioners have also found that their personal earbuds plug into the devices and work really well.

They are available at each Mass by simply asking one of our Ministers of Hospitality to get one for you.

We have had several parishioners test these, including some of our seniors. They tell us that the earpieces provide excellent enhanced sound.

Please let us know if you would like to try one!

May is the Month of Our Lady

In addition to the myriad feast days honoring Our Lady under her many titles and virtues, the entire month of May is especially given to her praise. In the words of Pope Paul VI, May is "a month which the piety of the faithful has long dedicated to Mary, the Mother of God ... For this is the month during which Christians, in their churches and their homes, offer the Virgin Mother more fervent and loving acts of homage and veneration; and it is the month in which a greater abundance of God's merciful gifts comes down to us from our Mother's throne."
