Reflection on the 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This week's Gospel and the one for next week describe how Jesus sent the disciples to minister in his name and the disciples' return to Jesus afterward. These two passages, however, are not presented together in Mark's Gospel. Inserted between the two is the report of Herod's fears that Jesus is John the Baptist back from the dead. In Mark's Gospel, Jesus' ministry is presented in connection with the teaching of John the Baptist. Jesus' public ministry begins after John is arrested. John the Baptist prepared the way for Jesus, who preached the fulfillment of the Kingdom of God.

Mark's Gospel tells us that Jesus sent out the Twelve. These twelve were selected from among Jesus' disciples and named by Mark in chapter 3. Mark notes that these twelve are also called "apostles." The word apostle means "one who is sent." The number twelve is also a symbolic number, representing the twelve tribes of Israel. By naming twelve apostles, Jesus shows his mission to be in continuity with the mission of God's people, Israel.

Jesus continues to send us into the world as his disciples. But like the first disciples, we are not sent alone. Jesus has given us the community of the Church, which strengthens our life of discipleship. The Christian message can only authentically be proclaimed in and through the community of faith that is the Church. In our work with others, we build this community of faith and can invite others to share in it.

Assisted Listening Devices:

As part of our continued effort to make sure everyone has a good listening experience during Mass we wanted to make you aware that we now have several new Assisted Listening Devices.

They are very easy to use.

You basically put the earpiece on your ear, turn the little device on, and adjust the volume to your liking. Several parishioners have also found that their personal earbuds plug into the devices and work really well.

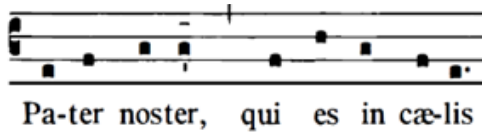

They are available at each Mass by simply asking one of our Ministers of Hospitality to get one for you.

We have had several parishioners test these, including some of our seniors. They tell us that the earpieces provide excellent enhanced sound.

Please let us know if you would like to try one!

Use of Latin in Mass

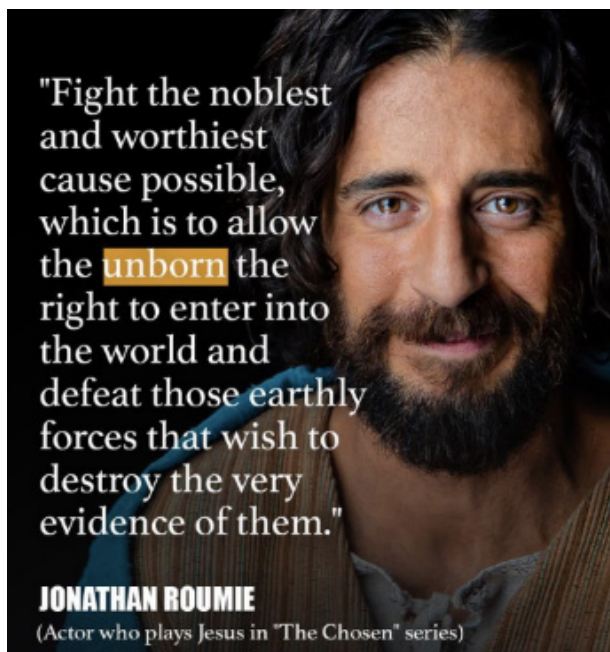

Why do we use Latin during Mass?

In 1903, Pope Pius X said that “The language proper to the Roman Church is Latin” (Tra le Sollecitudini, 7). As Roman Catholics, Latin is a significant part of our heritage.

In the 1960s, the Second Vatican Council echoed this preference for Latin saying, “the use of the Latin language is to be preserved in the Latin rites” (Sacrosanctum Concilium, 36.1).

The document goes on to discuss possible liturgical uses for vernacular languages. But even though the vernacular has many good uses (such as the readings, prayer of the faithful, etc.), the Council returns to this general preference for Latin: “steps should be taken so that the faithful may also be able to say or to sing together in Latin those parts of the Ordinary of the Mass which pertain to them” (Sacrosanctum Concilium, 54).

Latin is also a beautiful way to foster unity. To illustrate this, allow me to share a short story. I was once at a Mass at St. Peter’s Basilica in Rome, and after at least six different languages were used for readings and prayers, the Our Father was sung in Latin. What had started as many languages converged into one language for a chant which tens of thousands of pilgrims could sing together in St. Peter’s Square. A beautiful expression of the Church’s unity, made possible in part by the language proper to the Roman Church.

SAINTS FUN FACTS

Saint Bonaventure was known as the "seraphic doctor." He was good friends with St. Thomas Aquinas and at age 22, entered the Franciscan order. By 35 he was General of the Order and as general, composed The Life of St. Francis.

He was an Italian medieval scholastic theologian, philosopher, Cardinal, and Bishop of Albano.
