AT ST. LUKE'S

Welcome to Fr. Drew Navarro

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today our parish stands in a grace filled moment. With hearts full of joy, we welcome Fr. Drew Navarro, who celebrates his First Holy Mass among us. What a blessing it is to gather around the altar with a priest newly ordained—called to preach the Gospel, to forgive sins in Christ's name, to shepherd God's people, and to break for us the Bread of Life.

Through his hands, Christ will absolve, and through his voice, Christ will teach. Through his ministry, Christ will speak, Christ will heal, Christ will feed His people.

So, as a parish family, let us rejoice—not only in what God has done, but in what God will continue to do for him, for our Christian community and for our diocese as well.

The priesthood is never a work completed; it is a work unfolding. It is a grace continually given. It is a mission renewed day by day at the altar of the Lord, where the priest learns again how to love, how to serve, and how to give his life as Christ gave His.

May our parish continue to be a true nursery of vocations—a place where young hearts learn to listen for God's call, where families nurture faith, where the seeds of priestly and religious life are planted, watered, and brought to harvest by the Holy Spirit.

We also pray that Fr. Drew always find in the Eucharist his strength, his consolation, and the wellspring of every pastoral gift he offers to God's people.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Roger Malonda

AT ST. LUKE'S

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL FOR ADULTS 2026

*“The Gospel of Matthew:
The Messiah and the Fulfillment of the Old Testament”*

Video Lecturer: Dr. Brant Pitre

“St. Matthew’s Gospel was considered the most influential and popular book among the early Christian community. In this four-part series, Dr. Pitre will explain why that is the case and how for the early Jewish Christians, in particular, St. Matthew clearly makes the case for how the long-awaited hopes of the Jewish people are being fulfilled in Jesus. If you’ve ever wanted to learn more about main figures of the Old Testament and how and why they are relevant for setting the stage for Christ’s coming, then this study on the Gospel of Matthew is for you!”

WHEN: Tuesday AM, 9:15-11:00
