2nd Collection – September 13th

Catholic University of America

Next weekend, the diocese will take up the National Collection for The Catholic University of America. Catholic University is a national research university, in the heart of Washington, O.C., with over 5,700 undergraduate and graduate students in more than 250 academic programs. By giving to the collection, you are supporting future Catholic leaders, both religious and lay, who are being formed by an exceptional, faith-rooted education. The University's various research and training initiatives support dioceses and parishes in responding to the most pressing needs of their faithful. A few examples of how the University serves the Church and nation include The Catholic Project, an initiative that aims to heal the breach of trust many have experienced as a result of the crisis in the Church; a master's program in Ecclesial Administration and Management; and a credentialing program that prepares recent graduates to serve as campus ministers. Envelopes are provided for your convenience. You can you're your donations in the basket as it is passed next weekend, you can also scan the QR code on the envelopes provided, or visit: collection.catholic.edu to learn more.

Reflection on the 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

The 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time focuses on responsibility, love, and justice within the Christian community. The readings show that faith is not just personal; it involves caring for others. Whether by correcting someone, standing up for what is right, or handling conflicts with kindness, believers are called to act. These reflections explore how these lessons apply to daily life.

Devotion of SEPTEMBER - Month of Our Lady of Sorrows
Our Lady of Sorrows (Mater Dolorosa)
 The Church dedicates the month of September to Our Lady of Sorrows, also known as Mater Dolorosa (Mother of Sorrows). This devotion recalls the Blessed Virgin Mary's spiritual martyrdom in virtue of her perfect union with the Passion of Christ. This was her role in salvation history, and what merited her place as the spiritual Mother of all Christians. This is symbolized by a single sword, or seven swords, piercing Mary's suffering heart, as foretold in Simeon's prophecy.
 Traditionally the Church meditates on the "Seven Sorrows" of our Blessed Mother: ¹ the prophecy of Simeon; ² the Holy Family's flight into Egypt; ³ the loss of the Child Jesus for three days; ⁴ the meeting of Mary and Jesus as he carried his cross; ⁵ Jesus' crucifixion and death; ⁶ Jesus' sacred body taken down from the cross; and ⁷ Jesus' burial.
The feast of Our lady of Sorrow (mater Dolorosa) is September 15th.

"You have never begrudged the martyrs their triumph but rather trained them for it. And so I am asking you to be consistent with the lessons you teach them. Just beg for me the courage and endurance not only to speak but also to will what is right, so that I may not only be called a Christian, but prove to be one. For if I prove myself to be a Christian by martyrdom, then people will call me one, and my loyalty to Christ will be apparent when the world sees me no more. Nothing you can see is truly good. For our Lord Jesus Christ, now that he has returned to his Father, has revealed himself more clearly. Our task is not one of producing persuasive propaganda; Christianity shows its greatness when it is hated by the world."
 - St. Ignatius of Antioch, p. 194
 An excerpt from "Witness of the Saints"
Eternal rest grant unto Charlie Kirk, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
 ~Amen~
