Reflection on the 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time highlights the call to love, act with justice, and live out faith. The readings remind people that faith is not just about belief but also about how they treat others. God commands His people to care for the weak, be fair in their actions, and love others as they love themselves. Jesus teaches that love is the foundation of all God's laws. These reflections explore the themes of justice, action, and love in light of these readings.

VOTE: A PRIVILEGE, A RIGHT AND AN OBLIGATION
 Catholics have a moral obligation to promote the common good through the exercise of their voting privileges (CCC 2240).
 While there are many moral issues to consider, there are those on which all others depend:
 ✓ Issues that adversely affect the dignity of life, including abortion and euthanasia, are fundamental and demand serious consideration
 ✓ The First Amendment of the Constitution protects religious liberty, however we are witnessing increasing erosion of this protection.
 The citizen is obliged in conscience not to follow the directives of civil authorities when they are contrary to the demands of the moral order, to the fundamental rights of persons or the teachings of the Gospel. Refusing obedience to civil authorities, when their demands are contrary to those of an upright conscience, finds its justification in the distinction between serving God and serving the political community.
"A well-formed Christian conscience does not permit one to vote for a political program or an individual law that contradicts the fundamental contents of faith and morals." - (CPL)
